

Parenting and Being with Children

A workshop for parents, future parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and anyone spending time with children in their daily life.

“Your children ... are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself ... You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth ...”
K. Gibran

Many complex patterns and contexts go to make up the fabric of parenting and raising children. It is an exciting journey of response-ability, an adventure in growth and maturity and an endless source of challenge and joy!

We will draw inspiration and guidance from the wealth of natural wisdom of the 'Twisted Hair Council of Elders' and 'Vedrus' Grandmothers, whose healing knowledge enables us to re-cognize the bigger picture and better understand our own matrix and that of our children.

It teaches the natural behaviors we humans tend to grow into and explains their causes and effects. From a new perspective we have new choices as to how we share our aliveness with one another.

We'll receive effective tools to provide our children with the best possible support and to allow them to develop their natural talents and abilities to the full.

In this way we can bring them up to live their lives as responsible people with individual auton-omous freedom, that is, as 'real grown-ups'.

We'll share experience in small groups and learn how to apply the tools to our own lives.

Ceremonies, including a sweat lodge, will help us sharpen our self-awareness and see our own patterns as well as find healing, new direction and more maturity in a broader context so that we can integrate our experience and apply this new knowing to our daily lives.

They collect, weave, protect and hold accessible for all future generations sacred knowledge that is proven to be alchemically correct. They braid these strands of knowledge and power together for everyone willing and able to study.

Since 1975 these teachings have been shared in the form of the 'Sweet Medicine Sundance Path' for people of all races.

Women's Ways

is a series of workshops designed by Rose Thunder Eagle which relate to the different phases and themes of women's lives.

Powerful shamanic knowledge as thought by the 'Matriarchs of the Twisted Hair Council of Elders' awakens memory in us and helps us to reclaim our feminine power.

It is knowledge that very much applies to us 'modern women' and the time and environment we live in today.

Each seminar will give us practical knowledge, tools and understanding we can continuously use in our daily life.

The creation of a personal 'Womb Bundle', shamanic techniques and ceremonies and a special sweat lodge for women will help us to experience the magic of physically integrating this knowledge, regain our power and use it to live life in health, hope, happiness, humor and harmony.

Red Mist

The Alchemy of the Female Cycle

This workshop is essential for all women who have started their moon cycle, who are still bleeding and want to tap into and use the tremendous power and beauty of being a woman.

Within our physical womb space lays the magic of renewal – giving death and birthing life – the key to the mystical power of the 'Red Mist'.

The teachings of the 'Moon Kiva Lodge' as taught by the Matriarchs of the 'Twisted Hair' allow us to step into a new and direct understanding of the blood- mysteries of our cyclic moon flow. This enables us to experience a level of connectedness with self, life and others mostly unknown in our culture.

In understanding and honoring the gifts of our female body and it's creative power we find the awareness to unlock our mystery. We are able to take responsibility and stand accountable for what and who we are ...

The Marriage Basket

The Spirit Womb – the Key to Birthing Ourselves

The female womb space is an energetic replica of the life producing forces of the universe. The Matriarchs call our womb space the 'Marriage Basket'.

It is the source of our creative and regenerative powers as well as of our inner knowledge. They know it as the feminine source of centeredness and connectedness to Self, Life and Others.

They understand it to be the 'Vessel of Magical Birth', the birth of the female self in all its reflections.

They teach us about the mystery not only of giving life to physical children but also of birthing ourselves into all reflections of our highest potential as women. They show us ways to create a life that is rich and full of purpose.

The wisdom of the Elders is ancient, it works, and it is practical.

We will learn to understand and use our own true intuition and mysteriousness, access our unlimited potential of creative force and find successful solutions to the challenges of life.

We will gain understanding of the alchemy and patterns of creation and thus enable ourselves thru integrated knowledge to support our loved ones, our career and to actualize our desires and dreams.

Womb Space – Sexuality & Dreaming

Manifesting Dreams and Intentions

The Matriarchs gift us with their knowledge and challenge us to realize the connection between our natural female sexuality, the power of our conscious dreaming, and of the 'wholeness' or birthing power of our womb space.

Our sexual freedom and the strength of our sexual connection to self, life and others is the measure of consciousness, maturity and mastery of our awake and asleep dreaming.

Teachings on different levels of dreams, and techniques to strengthen the art and recall of dreaming allow us to realize the multiple facets of our matrix.

Our sexual energy and our dreaming are our catalyzing powers, and the womb space is the cradle. The more a woman's womb is 'awakened' the more she is able to live a fulfilled, aware and vital life to the benefit of everyone.

The ancient teachings and practical tools the Grandmothers share with us lead us deeper into the exploration and integration of the power of our womb, our sexuality and our dreaming.

In this way we integrate a new level of honesty, healing and beauty. The mystery of creative force is pulsating in our womb ...

Closing the Rose

Menopause – the Time of Changing Into Power

This empowering seminar is for women facing the 'Great Change' and for all those that are already in one of the 'four faces of menopause'.

The Matriarchs speak of this cycle as a most powerful opportunity to transform and discover our deepest innermost core, of gaining completion and maturation on all levels.

We will learn and apply ways of letting go and healing and gain tools that support us in birthing ourselves with harmony and humor into Menopause and to ride and enjoy the 'hot waves' of trans-formation.

They teach us to 'bundle our life force' in order to honor and harvest our life's wisdom as well as the sexual knowledge that we have gained and earned through-out a long lifetime.

This enables us to use these 'treasures' for the well-being of ourselves and for the next Seven Generations. This is a tremendous gift and a great challenge.

The wisdom of the Elders supports us in this adventure of change and assists us to successfully journey to the
